MORTGAGES
RELEASED

ON SITE OF WIRELESS AND TELEPHONE HEADQUARTERS OF THE NEW COMPANY.

Certain papers were filed in the office of the Registrar of Conveyances this morning which seem to show that the new telephone system which will be constructed in this city under the auspices of what is now the Hawaiian Telegraph and Telephone Company, is going ahead in earnest. The Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, which has always acted as the agents for the wireless concern, has obtained the release of the encumbrances on the property at the corner of Bishop and Merchant streets, which will be used by the new concern.

The property mentioned was subject to two mortgages, one given by John Emmelhuth to Alexander Young, for the sum of $6,000, and the second from Walter Peacock to the Bishop estate trustees for the sum of $11,500. Both are released to the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company in consideration of the payment of $17,500.

Thus far the purchase price of the site is held a private matter. From certain known facts, however, it is a fair deduction that it was not less than $55,000 and possibly struck the $60,000 mark. The area is somewhat over 12,000 square feet.

BIG DAY AT COUNTRY CLUB

There will be great doings at the Country Club on Nuuanu tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day, when turkeys will be eaten and prizes will be given away as prizes in the four-ball golf tournament, entries closing at 10 a. m. The tennis courts of the Country Club are to be overhauled, not within the next few days, for there may be folks wanting to play, but as soon as the work will not interfere with projected games.

THE MYRTLE FETE

Preparations for the chowder and dance to be given by the Myrtle Boat Club on the evening of Saturday, December 5, are going along rapidly and a delightful time is assured to all who attend. The arrangements for the chowder have been placed in the hands of Mrs. A. E. Murphy, which means that they will not only be complete but will run along without friction of any kind. The manner in which Mrs. Murphy made such a great success of the "Gypsy Encampment" is sufficient testimony in regard to her ability in this line.

The chowder will be served in the early part of the evening, commencing at about 7:30, in the grounds of the Moana Hotel, the decorations being in charge of Mrs. Alice Hastings. Later will come the dancing, for which the best musicians in the city have been obtained and which will also be looked after by Mrs. Hastings.

When you dare not use the "party line" telephone you can use the "Automatic." Absolutely secret service. Order a phone at Waterhouse Trust Co.

NEW MANAGER OF JORDAN'S

MR. FLETCHER IS NOW IN CHARGE OF THE OLD ESTABLISHMENT.

Mr. Fletcher, the dry goods expert, has been appointed manager of E. W. Jordan & Co.'s establishment. He was lately in charge of the N. S. Sachs Co.'s store while Mr. Sachs was absent, and formerly held a responsible position with Ethers & Co.

The Waterhouse Co. is financing the Jordan corporation and lately the following new board of directors was elected:

E. W. Jordan, president.
H. T. Hayselden, vice president.
F. T. P. Waterhouse, secretary and treasurer.

James Jaeger and H. Rycroft, directors.

Before Mr. Jordan acquired the business some years ago, it had been established for a long time as the "Waterhouse No. 10 Store." In its present location on Fort street, being owned along with the wholesale and retail merchandise business of the first John Thomas Waterhouse situated on Queen street, which embraced separate dry goods, hardware and crockery stores. A legend on one of the buildings so occupied is still to be seen, showing that the business was established in 1852. The secretary and treasurer of the Fort street concern is a grandson of the founder.

DIVORCE CASES.

Attorney Claudius Harley McBride, Governor Frear's stenographer, special detective for the Secretary of the Territory and for a short time secretary of the Atlantic fleet reception committee, appears as the lawyer for the defendants in two divorce suits which were placed on file in the Circuit Court this morning. The first is that of Annie Namaielua vs. Solomon Namaielua, the latter being one of the candidates for representative on the Republican ticket in the Fifth District, but being defeated. It is alleged that he has failed to support his wife, that he has used vile language toward her, besides striking her and accusing her of misconduct with other men.

The second case is that of Kemaia Kuaia vs. William Kuaia. The latter is accused of desertion for over three years. The couple were married in 1881 and lived together happily till 1904, but since that time have been separated.

OOKALA BOND RELEASE.

A release of the trust deed by which the $80,000 bond issue of the Ookala Sugar Plantation Company was secured was filed this morning with Registrar of Conveyances Merriam. The release was signed before the American vice consul in London, England, by Cecil Brown, who acted as trustee. He states that the bonds have been properly taken up, both principal and the interest at six per cent being paid according to agreement.

James L. Holt, secretary of the Office Supply Co., returned by the Hiloian this morning. He brought with him 123 cases of Globe-Wernicke filing cabinets, bookcases and supplies, and a small shipment of new model Remington typewriters.

Now is the time to subscribe for the cussless, waitless, out-of-order-less, girlless telephone—the automatic. Orders taken at Hawaiian Telegraph & Telephone Co., Waterhouse Trust Co. office.

ROOT NOT ROOSEVELT

(Special Correspondence to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 12.—President Roosevelt stated positively to some of his friends that he is not a candidate for Senator Platt's seat in the Senate, and that he will not permit his name to go before the New York legislature at its next session.

With Roosevelt out of the way Secretary Root is the most likely man to be chosen, particularly as he has the endorsement of the President, and is easily the most competent man on the list of possibilities. There was some talk of placing Mr. Root on the Supreme Bench, but those in a position to know, say that the Secretary would prefer to go to the Senate. Moreover there is some doubt as to the time when a vacancy will occur in the Supreme Court, whereas there is no doubt about the time when the New York Senatorship will become vacant. If elected to succeed Senator Platt, Mr. Root could step directly from the Cabinet to the Senate, as his term as Secretary of State, expires the same day as the term of Senator Platt.

CAUSES
BIG KICK

The reported attack in Washington on the Mahuku site was much discussed about town today, and considerable objection to the new fight was made. It was reported, but could not be verified, that ex-Governor Carter, who is on the mainland, is fighting against the site. As the Mahuku site was chosen at a mass meeting here, there is great resentment among the business men who attended the meeting, at an attack upon it now, especially as the fight, if one is made in Congress, may endanger the appropriation for a building.

It is stated that the local commercial and other organizations will take action to give expression again to the decision reached when the federal agent was here to select a site.

HONOLULU HALE IS HELD HIGH

Some time ago, when the disposition of Honolulu Hale—as the dilapidated, capitol building of ancient days is called—was a matter of discussion, Morgan's agency by its orator, Steven, offered the Government $30,000 for the property. This was at a higher rate than the Government obtained for the old Sailors' Home lot, at Bethel and Merchant streets, from the Yokohama Specie Bank. Yet it was not satisfactory to the Government.

A board of appraisers was appointed to value the lot, consisting of a Territorial and a County official and a broker. The officials appraised the property at $37,000 and the broker gave a dissenting valuation at $29,000. Governor Frear cut the higher appraisal down to $35,000, for which the lot with its valueless building is now presumably held.

STEVEN'S DEAL.

O. A. Steven of Morgan's negotiated the sale of site to the Hawaiian Telegraph and Telephone Co.

HOLIDAY NOTICE.
